

Tommy Killebrew

Tommy and Judy Killebrew met and married in 1990 with Tommy moving from Raleigh to join Judy in living on Jenkins Road at that time. Tommy is a graduate of N.C. Wesleyan College, with a degree in Mgmt Info Systems and Judy is a graduate of ECU with a degree in business/accounting. Their two daughters, Emily and Katie came along in 1996 and 1999 respectively, and are now college students at Wake Tech and Appalachian State.

The Killebrew family enjoys time with family and friends, being at the beach, travel, and being a part of Wake Forest Baptist Church. They transferred their membership from Carolina Pines Baptist Church in south Raleigh about 15 years ago after visiting several area churches. WFBC was very welcoming to them, being greeted on the steps as they entered and led to a classroom. On the first visit we saw someone we knew, Deborah Moyer, and were comforted that this was the right choice for us.

Tommy and Judy have been active with the WFBCYG with mission trips, tree lot duties, Sondown, etc, and he has been teaching children's Sunday School for about 10 years. He enjoys being Secretary and past president of the Wake Forest Lions Club, and cares about the Koinonia Foundation and Relay for Life. He also enjoys volunteering at the church office, working with the handypersons ministry, and being a member of the Disaster Response team.

Tommy has been an NCSU fan since childhood and is proud that his oldest daughter (from first marriage) is an NCSU grad. He can be reached at: johntommyk49@gmail.com or 919-801-1566.
