

Marty Boccock

Marty and his wife Glema joined WFBC in 2010. Both are originally from Bristol, Virginia; and have lived there and in Richmond, Charlottesville, Columbia, SC and Wake Forest during his forty-two year career with Sprint/CenturyLink.

Their son Nathan, his wife Laura and their three children (ages 4, 2 and 5 months) live in Wilmington (moving to Columbia, SC in May); and their daughter Alison lives at home in Wake Forest while attending Watts School of Nursing after graduating from The College at Southeastern (Seminary).

Marty is a member of the Chancel Choir and Men's Chorus and serves on the Music Ministry Council, the Virginia Tull Music and Arts Series team and the Finance Committee. He and Glema are members of the Faith Growers Sunday School class.

Golf and Virginia Tech sports are Marty's favorite pastimes; and he and Glema enjoy traveling and spending time with their family.
