

Jannis Shea

My late husband, Phil, and I moved to Wake Forest in 2013 after having retired from 40 years of teaching at ECU. We left behind Oakmont Baptist Church where we had been members for 50 years since its beginning in 1964. We came to be near our two adult daughters who live in the area. Lark and her husband have two “launched” sons, while Kristen is Mom to two Brittany doggies. We joined WFB Church in 2014 and were warmly welcomed by the congregation and by the Koinonia Sunday School Class. I participate in several church ministries including: quilting; the Brookdale Retirement Facility; the Women’s Book Club; and I am one of several teachers in the Koinonia class. Additionally, I represent the Education Committee on the Church Leadership Council.
