

Mike Dishman

Mike Dishman is a native North Carolinian, growing up in the mountains of NC west of Boone. He has fond memories of being baptized in November in the Watauga River as a young boy. Mike has a 12 year old son Benjamin who he loves dearly.

Mike has been a member of WFBC since 2007. He started and leads the Divorce Care ministries, and teaches 2nd/3rd grade Sunday School. He's a former deacon, and has served on the Personnel, WEE Care, and Nominations Committee as well as helping with VBS. He currently leads the Outreach Team and serves as a trustee.

Mike has a B.S. in physics from Appalachian State University and a M.S. in physics from Wake Forest University. He worked in applied physics in Research Triangle Park for many years. He's now employed as a sales engineer, working with engineers who are designing new products.

Mike enjoys sports car racing, biking, reading, hiking and supporting Embrace Uganda. But most of all, he enjoys being a part of the Wake Forest Baptist Church family along with his son, and is very thankful for his church.
